PROPHETS OF OLD

First to See Coming Of Prince of Peace

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — For centuries prophets have forecast the birth of a Christ Child and historians have made many references to the coming of a Messiah.

These are some of the names which have been applied to Him. Immanuel, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace, The Lord of the Highest and Jesus.

Since the birth here today of the Wonderful child and the excitment and rejoicing that have followed local scribes have been searching history and the Bible and point to the predictions of Isaiah, Jeremiah, Micha and others.

The following quotations are given as vital to the Messiah's coming:

The Lord spoke again to Ahaz saying, Ask thee a sign of the Lord they God . . . But Ahaz said I will not ask, neither will I tempt the Lord. And he said, Hear ye now, O House of David . . . Behold a virgin shall conceive and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. — Isaiah 7:14.

The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light; they that dwell in the land of the shawdow of death, upon them hath the light shined . . . For unto us a child is born, unto us a child is given, and the government shall be upon his shoulders, and his name shall be called WONDEFUL COUNSELOR THE MIGHTY GOD, THE EVERLASTING FATHER, THE PRINCE OF PEACE, of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgement and justice henceforth even forever.

The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this. — Isaiah 9:2-7.

I will gather the remnants of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds . . . and I will set up shepherds over them which shall feed them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the Lord, that I will raise, and the king shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgement and justice in the earth . . . And this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD, Our RIGHTEOUSNESS. — Jeremiah 23:3-6.

Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops; he hath laid seige against us; They say smite the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem. Ephararath, though thou be little among the thousands of Judahs, yet out of thee shall come forth unto me one that is to be ruler of Israel; whose goings forth have been from old, from everlasting . . And he shall stand, and feed in the strength of the Lord, in the majesty of the name of the Lord his God; and they shall abide; for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. — Micah 5:14.

In the sixth month the Angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, to a virgin spoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came upon her, and said. Hail thou are highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed are thou among women. And when she saw him she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be, and the Angel said unto her: Fear not, Mary, for thou hast found favor with God.

Magi Followed Star To Find Son of Mary

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The mysticism and beauty of the Orient has mingled with the simplicity and reverence of a little town made holy by a divine occurance.

Three sages from the East, impressive in the richness of their many colored silks and gold insignia, walked the dusty streets of Bethlehem today and told of their journeys across desert and plain to lay rare gifts at the feet of the tiny babe.

They spoke briefly and eloquently of the prophecy. "There shall come a star out of Jacob and a spectre shall rise out of Israel," and they described the brilliance and comet-like action of this star which had arisen in the east, and which they had followed until it halted over the Judean city.

These three Magi who bear the names of Casper, Melchor and Balthazar, were familiar with the Hebrew prophecies which foretold the advent of the Messiah, and had long waited for the star, they said. To prepare for the promised King of Israel, they sold their possessions and equipped a caravan.

Last night, surrounded by humble shepherds and barnyard animals, they fell to their knees and worshipped the young child with great joy, and presented him with frankincense, myrrh and gold.

When they were asked if the commonplace surrounding seemed out of keeping with Christ's significance, Melchor, the wise man, answered:

"The King we seek is not to be found in the palace, nor among the rich and powerful. If the light of the world and the glory of Israel had been appointed to come with earthly splendor, it must have happened long ago. For no son of Abraham will ever again rival the power which Joseph had in the palaces of Egypt or the magnificance of Solomon throned between the lions of Jerusalem. But the light for which the world is waiting is a new light, the glory that shall rise out of patient and triumphant suffering. And the kingdom which is to be established forever in a new kingdom, the royalty of unconquerable love."

An intimation of the uncertain future was voiced when he added: "I do not know how the turbulent kings and people of the earth shall be brought to acknowledge the Messiah and pay homage to Him. But this I know. Those who seek Him will do well to look among the poor and lowly, the sorrowful and the oppressed."

Astrologers See Tragedy, Sorrow For Holy Babe

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Great tragedy will mark the future of the child born in Bethlehem, say the country's foremost astrologers. The stars, they say, reveal:

He will be in great danger while he is still an infant, and because of an attempt upon His life, many children will be killed.

He will live to be hailed in Jerusalem, but will later be rejected and betrayed by one close to Him.

Crucifixion will be the manner of His death, and He will undergo unspeakable suffering.

There are other venerable pathetic words which foretell the sufferings of the promised Messiah.

These reveal that He will be "despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted grief."

Their search of the records it is believed, will continue for many weeks and will entail many secret conferences with not only members of their craft, but with the priesthood in the temple itself. Whether their finds will be made public in detail is not known.

The astrologers added that this preliminary report of their findings as revealed by their efforts probably would be considered altered by further study and indeed, might be radically altered by results of research and study.

Dogs and Sheep Overcome by Celestial Radiance

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The shepherd's dogs and sheep were overcome also by the strange light from heaven last night, the men reported.

'Mary Smiled at Me!' Simply Clad Boy Says

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — A young boy — one of the band of shepherds which was visited on the hill near here last night by a heavenly host of angels who told them of the birth of the baby prophet, was a shy narrator of events transpiring at the stables when the presence of the child became known.

Rough clad, and plainly awed by his part in the divine drama, he gave the only clear impression gained of Mary, the mother of the Holy Child. The other shepherds were too inspired, and the wise men from the east too preoccupied with the identity of the infant to notice details which the eye of a child seized upon.

"Everything seems so quiet in the stable," he replied to questions. "I noticed that even the pigeons didn't coo like they usually do."

"Did Mary or Joseph say anything to anyone?" he was asked.

The lad flushed then conflicted: "Joseph asked to me help him fix the hay so it would be more comfortable, and then Mary smiled at me after she had been looking at the baby, and so I asked her if they didn't have better places in the inn. She answered low-like: "There wasn't any room for us."

"I felt sorry for her; and then she smiled again and just whispered: "But I like it here. The inn was so noisy, and the streets are full of loud people. The animals are peaceful. You must'nt feel sorry for us."

"I still felt strange. It is as though something too wonderful to talk about has happened to me, I can't explain it. But I feel so peaceful inside."

Messiah Comes Into World Torn By Internal Strife

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Chris was born last night. They say he is a King. Into a world torn with strife, into a dictator-ridden country that trembles at the clashing swords of Rome, has come the ray of light so long awaited by the troubled people.

It is a far cry from the golden pillars of Solomon's temple to the crude stalls of a cattle barn.

For hundreds of years the memories and tales of the glories of ancient Jerusalem have been treasured in the hearts of scattered race. For generations they have unrolled their papyrus scripts and reassured themselves that one day a Redeemer of Mankind would restore their kingdoms. With mighty armies He would vanquish a tyrant Caesar, and rebuild their shining city.

They thought of him in terms of shining rainment and a golden throne; they didn't expect swaddling clothes and manger hay.

They could see him proclaimed by heralds with silver trumpets; they didn't think his companions could be rough-haired oxen and sleepy-eyed goats.

They expected urns of smoldering incense, but not the aroma of a stable.

Multitudes would prostrate themselves on the ground in His presence, they believed; they didn't suppose that a harried innkeeper would suggest that the royal family sleep in the barn because all of his rooms were full of taxpayers.

Some say that this baby born last night to Mary and Joseph of Nazareth couldn't possibly be the Messiah foretold in Scriptures. But there are others who remember the words of the prophet Isaiah, of Jeremiah and of Micah and with unspeakable joy hail Him as the Saviour of Israel.

Mary and Joseph Both Descendants Of Royal Line

NAZARETH, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Although Mary, mother of the Saviour, and her husband, Joseph, live among the humbler folk here, where he is a carpenter, they are of the royal family of Judiah and the descendant of King David.

The Jews keep exact lists of their genealogies thus explaining the present situation.

For the old prophets said that the Christ child was to be born at Bethlehem whereas Mary lives in Nazareth 50 miles distant. But when the Emperior August called for the regular 10-year census he ordered Herod to register the people according to the tribe to which they belong. Mary and Joseph belonging to the family of David were required to go to Bethlehem.

Inn Keeper's Faith In Miracle Strengthens

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning of Year of Our Lord 1. — Bewilderment marked the features today of the keeper of the little inn where Mary and Joseph sought shelter last night. But behind the bewilderment could be sensed a dawning belief.

"There was something different about her face," he said of Mary. "It was tired — but different. And when Joseph turned away leading the ass she was riding, something about him too, made me want to call them back.

"I went to the stable this morning," he mused. "Only it didn't seem like the same stable somehow."

Shopkeeper Has Doubts About Jesus

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — "All the excitement has made more business for my shop but I do not believe he is the Christ."

That was the opinion of the proprietor of a small shop here who has not yet visited the now-famous birthplace of the infant-Jesus.

"I really believe this is just something arranged to make more entertainment for taxpayer week," he went on. "Why, the true Christ will be so mighty that there will not be a doubt by anyone when he comes. That light was just a falling meteor and those sleepy shepherds were startled by it. You know how a story can grow."

He said he had been too busy to go along with the crowds to the stable, and added that the innkeeper would probably have more business than ever.

"I have an extra room here at the back," he said thoughtful. "If I had only known — and he hurried to wait on a customer.

Lowly Shepherds with Flocks on Nearby Hills First to Note Miracle of Celestial Visitation

Long-Awaited Messiah Born in Lowly Manger

The Christmas issue today tells the story of Christ's birth as it might have been told if modern newspapers had been printed at that time. Today's current news appears on inside pages. The Bethlehem story was mainly written several years ago by a newsman and its use has become tradition with us. The dispatches are based on the story of the Christ child as it was originally written.

Herod in Dread, Seeks to Delude Sages from East

Manger Miracle Told Over and Over As Groups Collect

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — An apprehensive Herod sits on the throne of Judah, and is much disturbed at the significance of the Messiah in Bethlehem.

This was brought to light with the recent visit here of sages from the East who were seeking the newborn King of the Jews. Having heard of their inquiries, Herod hastily called together his chief priests and scribes who write the laws, and demanded them to tell him more of the prophecies of Christ's coming.

Then he summoned the wise men for questioning, and led them to believe that, if they would go to Bethlehem, discover the Child and return and tell him about it, he would journey there himself to pay homage.

Those who heard Herod's interview with these Eastern wise men say he was given only evasive answers.

Political commentators say it is understandable that Herod should feel uneasy at the rise of a leader who will capture the imagination of a discouraged people. His reign has been a singularly unhappy one due to the pressure from Rome.

The Emperor Augustus has lately accumulated foreign property and subjects through a campaign of military invasions and controls about all in this part of the world that is worth taking. This has occupied the minds of the people, but has increased Roman extravagances. Palestine is one of these conquered countries and Herod is the King of Augustus's own choosing.

Some regard Herod's fear of a ruler who will overthrow him in a material sense as being unfounded.

They maintain that the significance of the Messiah is spiritual rather than political, and point out that he has always been prophesied as a Shepherd of Souls rather than a military deliverer.

Herod's nature, these commentators say, makes it impossible for him to understand a Prince of Peace.

Great Joy Pervades City of Bethlehem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — It is impossible to describe the feeling of great joy that pervades Bethlehem today as the coming of the long-heralded Messiah is realized by the majority of its inhabitants.

The shepherds probably experienced the most poignant sensation for it was to them that the news was first given. The little group who were guarding their flocks from foxes and wolves that still roam the hills of Palestine, speak with great wondering of last night's message from the sky.

The amazing light together with the chanting of a heavenly host has brought on incoherence to their speech; but the radiance of their facts is more impressive than any words could be.

"An angel of the Lord suddenly flashed before us and the glory of the Lord shown all around us," one of them said.

"We were frightened but the angel said, "Have no fear. This is good news. I am bringing to you news of great joy that is meant for all the people. Today you have a saviour born in the town of David, the Lord, Messiah. And here is a proof to you; you will find a baby wrapped up and lying in a stall for cattle."

Then a host of heaven's army suddenly appeared beside the angel, extolling God and saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

"Having sung this song, the angel went back to heaven, the light faded away, and all was dark as before."

"We began talking together about these strange sights and sounds," the shepherd related.

"We didn't stop to think what would happen to our flocks, or wait until morning, we went at once. When we saw all was as the angel had said, we told everyone about it."

Brilliant Star Presaged Secret Mystery of Birth

JERUSALEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Eminent astrologers here admit to the appearance of a new star. They say that at infrequent periods such stars, or novae, as they term them, suddenly appear with great brilliance, are evident for a time, then fade away.

Last night's star, they explained, resulted from the conjunction of two great planets, Jupiter and Saturn.

Magi's Wisdom is Greatest in World Declares Caspar

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — This is what Casper, one of the wise men, said about their belief:

"The wisdom of the Magi is the greatest of all wisdoms on earth, because it knows its own ignorance. And that is the secret of power. We worship fire as a symbol of Him. We keep men always looking and waiting for a new sunrise but we ourselves understand that the darkness is equal to the light and that the conflict between them will never be ended."

Herod's Spies Said Departing Hurriedly For Jerusalem

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — Several known spies and two synochophants of the court of King Herod, who for the greater part of the morning have been furtively watching the stable wherein the King of Glory rests in his swaddling clothes, left and came bound presumably for Jerusalem.

Herod is known to be extremely interested in the journeys of the Magi to Bethlehem.

Eyes of All Judea Turn to Bethlehem As Word Spreads

Appearance of Star Convinces Inhabitants New Baby is Prince

BETHLEHEM, Dec. 25—Beginning the Year of Our Lord 1. — The eyes of all Judea are turned with awe today upon this little town as the word emanates from it that the long prophesied Messiah was born here last night.

Miraculous happenings and visitations of heavenly hosts which confronted them with radiance and divine song, lead inhabitants to believe that this is the prince of the throne of David, who Scriptures have said will reunite the scattered tribes of Israel and reign over them as the Son of God.

The appearance of a new star of Great Magnitude and luminenscence, convinced them that it portends to the ancient prophecy.

The infant, born to Mary, a Jewish girl from Nazareth, who is the wife of Joseph, a carpenter, was first discovered by a group of shepherds who received the news of His birth from a band of angels while they were tending their flocks in the low lying hills outside the city.

Descending in a blaze of heavenly glory that prostrated the little group of men and boys with amazement, the divine visitors told them not to be afraid but to go to the stable in Bethlehem, where they would find the Christ in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger.

This the shepherds did, being guided all the way by an angel. There they found the child, but recently born, with his parents and stable animals. So deep was the conviction of the angel's message upon them, that they immediately accepted Him as the promised Saviour, and fell upon their knees and worshiped him.

Following in quick succession the visit of the shepherds was a caravan of wise men, or Magi, from humble birthplace bearing jewels and precious gifts. To them too, this was a long-awaited event, since they are close students of astronomy, and were watching for the star. When it appeared they regarded it as the sign that the child had been born which the prophet had foretold.

While the largest part of the population here is talking of the event in tones of unsuppressed awe, and plainly regard it as a means by which they will be delivered from their Roman oppressor, there are many who are frankly skeptical. They feel that the future Christ will come from a more significant source.

The whole atmosphere here has been one of unusual excitement for the past few days since that was the time decreed by Augustus Caesar for all tax payers in Judea to be registered. Mary and Joseph being of the house of David, were required to come to Bethlehem, and although Mary was an expectant mother, and the 50-mile journey from Nazareth in Galilee was extremely arduous for her, the urgency of the order was such that they dare not say no.

From the meager details gained from keepers of public places, it appears that Joseph had failed to make any reservation for lodging. The low temperature of the winter night forced them to the stable where they made themselves as comfortable as they could in the straw. They suffered no ill effects from the experience, however, and those who visited the little family after the birth became known, report that an aura of light transformed the dingy surroundings into a place of beauty.

Mary indicated that she would call the child Jesus.

Crisis Funds Appeal Planned by Lutherans

MINNEAPOLIS — A five-month program to raise $1,500,000 for national crisis projects will be conducted by The American Lutheran Church early in 1970. The drive will be called "Project Neighbor."

George B. Parks, an ALC layman from Los Angeles, who has long been active in the black community, has been named director of the campaign. Funds will be sought in the nearly 5,000 congregations of the church body from Ash Wednesday (February 11) through June, 1970.

Project Neighbor funds will be used for rural and urban social service projects, scholarships for minority students, economic aid and seed money that will bring in other money for larger projects, particularly in housing. Some money will be used for institutes to help develop better understanding of current problems.

A major part of the funds will be allocated to area committees, including members from minority groups, who will evaluate projects and release funds to specific projects.

During 1969 the American Lutheran Church devoted $511,000 to similar projects. It also allocated more than $1,000,000 of its investment funds to financial institutions owned by black Americans and to seed money projects enabling black families to purchase homes.

The 1970 Project Neighbor goal of $1,500,000 is in addition to more than a half million dollars on the church's regular budget for similar work.

Unusual Tree at Christian Church

Last Sunday morning the Bible School children and many adults of the Christian Church of Lemon Grove at 6970 San Miguel ave. decorated a large Christmas tree during the Bible School hour.

The decorations consisted of warm clothing for the children of Korea who are in the orphanages connected with the work orginally begun by Dr. and Mrs. Chase. Dr. Chase is minister of the local church.

This church is involved in what is known as direct-support or independent missions. That is to say that its missionary work is carried on without the use of any missionary society here in America.

So in keeping with this principle of missionary work these gifts of clothing are already on the way to Korea and the money that was placed on the tree was sent by air mail the following morning.

There was no overhead involved, even the postage being provided by individuals.

The minister asserted that this is a growing practice among the Christian churches across America who now have more than 1200 missionaries scattered around the world all being supported by this direct method.

Xmas Cookie Shortcuts

'Tis the season for mother to bake cookies and for kids to munch them.

The gingerbreadman and sugary confections that delight the family can be more fun than drudgery for mom if she uses baking shortcuts and modern time-savers.

Always whip up several batches of cookies at the same time. You'll save stooping and reaching because all the ingredients will be out on the counter at once.

While one recipe bakes, you can mix up the next. After popping the last dozen in the oven, you can start cleaning up.

Does the recipe call for greased cookie sheets? Cut time and shortening by using a paper towel with a small piece of margarine or butter and greasing in circles on the pan where you will lay the cookies.

Every woman who has ever rolled cookies to cut knows how tough the dough gets after she works it in flour.

Next time, mix half flour and half powdered sugar and sprinkle the mixture on your pastry cloth or dough board.

The cookies will roll easier and faster, and the little bit of sugar absorbed prevents toughening by flour and handling.

When mixing dough too, ou'll wat paper towels handy just in case the phone or doorbell rings.

If it does, wrap your hand with towels, and you can open the door or left the receiver without making a sticky mess.

After you bake, cool cookies thoroughly on several layers of paper towels.

The towels will absorb excess moisture quickly, and you won't have a messy cooling rack to wash up.

When cookies are completely cool, line the cookie jar with more towels. Stack the cookies in the jar, placing another towel on top.

Made of two layers bonded together for extra absorbency, paper towels will keep your cookies crisp and crunchy until the last crumb is gone.

With the cookie project over, the lots of goodies hidden away on kitchen shelves, a quick wipeup with damp paper towels will make counter tops and tables neat again.

Try a few shortcuts and time-saver paper towels this holiday season, and you'll find it easier to beat cookie-baking bother.

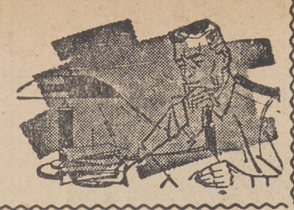
LEMON GROVE REVIEW

Scots Breeze to Kiwanis Tourney Title

The DIMMER VIEW

by Max Goodwin



A Story at Christmas

The joy of Christmas takes different forms from year to year.

But the act of giving is always rewarding — especially to those who give.

Each year generous people call this office asking for the names of families who might be needy.

Caught up in the spirit of Christmas giving, these people offer a wide selection of things — from used clothing and toys to money gifts.

Until he died a couple of years back, a local electrical contractor, Sterling Cato, brought in $150 in new $10 bills each Christmas as an anonymous gift to a family we deemed to be most needy.

We delivered the money regularly to a family in Lemon Grove comprising a great-grandmother, her elderly son and daughter both of whom were mentally ill, and four great-grandchildren whose parents had been separated and missing for this period.

Cato was a shy man and he resisted the invitation of the recipients of his generosity to visit with them. The year before he died, however, he made the visit.

The youngsters clung to his neck and smothered him with love and affection. The old folks gathered about him as though he were a Prince Charming instead of a normally unnoticed man who needed to bolster his courage at a nearby bistro before he agreed to visit the family.

Shy, generous Cato has passed and the family he administered to has come upon better days. Their needs are now negligible.

That, we suppose, is the moral of this yarn.

There are few families hereabout in dire need this year.

Usually as many as a dozen names are listed with us. This year there were none. Even school nurses, who have a knowledge of some borderline cases, failed to produce such a family.

If the meaning is what is implied, society is doing a splendid job of caring for its members as communities find fewer and fewer families needing voluntary charity.

From those who have graduated a hand-to-mouth existence we offer this piece from them as an expression of the Season.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!

Save Pines Drive Gains More Steam

One woman from Utah wrote emphatically, "Protect those Torrey Pines. You have too many real estate developments in California already. Besides, the trees were there first."

A junior high school student from Wisconsin wrote, "The plight of these trees interest me because I feel that people should do everything they can to conserve nature. These trees are more important than whatever the real estate developers would use the land for. If someday I or somebody else would want to see a Torrey Pine I hope its around to see."

Their letters were typical of the thousands of letters received by the Torrey Pines Association in La Jolla, California.

The campaign to save the Torrey Pines centers on the extension of the existing Torrey Pines State Reserve into 170 acres located north of it. The proposed extension contains some rare groves of the pre-historic Torrey Pine species, which is only found in this area.

It was announced in October that only $300,000 remained to be raised to match the State of California's allocation of $900,000. Since then, $40,000 has been raised, leaving a balance of $260,000 to be raised by the deadline of January 1970.

Letters and contributions have come from every state in the nation. Ed Butler, chairman of the campaign, has been amazed at the outpouring of affection for the trees from every type and age of person.

"We have even received a contribution from a lady who read about our drive in Greece. Some people short on cash have even given us stock certificates. It's simply amazing."

One lady in Florida wrote, "Californian's have always shown great pride in their state so that I'm confident they won't let beautiful rare Torreys fall to the bulldozers."

From Nebraska, a great grandfather sent in one dollar with a note saying, "I wish I could give much more for the Torrey Pines but am not able to. I hope many more send you a dollar." He was a retired Army Colonel.

A newspaper publisher in Ohio sent in a thousand dollars "to preserve and develop Torrey Pines.' '

"Save the Ice Age pines," said a note from a Massachusetts man. "I'll probably never see them but I'm for anything that will save some of the beauty of our country."

From New York, a gentleman wanted to know "if the Torrey Pine could live in the Catskill Mountains, I would like a few seedlings for my mostly mountain sixty acres."

"Here in the Southeast," wrote a man, "we're accustomed to having our attractions taken away from us. You're supposed to be more intelligent than we are so protect whatever is left that is attractive out there."

A lady in New York City sent "a small contribution in

Grossmont Eyes Another Campus

After a comprehensive study of the potential future enrollment of junior college students in the Grossmont College District indicated that in the relative near future, the present facilities would no longer meet the student demand, the Grossmont College Governing Board authorized the establishment of a Citizen's Advisory Committee to investigate the possibility of expanding the existing campus or developing a second campus.

In order to implement the Governing Board's authorization, the Citizen's Advisory Committee, under the leadership of Dale Randles Sr., 702 El Rancho dr., El Cajon, is considering the possibility involved in the acquisition if a second college campus.

According to Randles, the committee is interested in looking at property containing from 150 to 165 usable acres and which is accessible either by existing highways or by roads projected for the near future.

Randles said, "Persons or groups of individuals who may have acreage which they believe will meet the college's need, are invited to submit proposals to the Site Selection Committee."

"If possible, such proposals should contain a map of the property or a brief legal description; driving time studies, if made from centers of population; availability of all utilities; site development studies, and soil and geological studies, if available; appraisal and zoning reports; population trends as well as any special topigraphical features."

"Persons or groups of individuals who have proposals to submit are urged to forward them to Ernest B. Twiss, Community Information Officer Grossmont College, 8800 Grossmont College dr., by January 2. Proposals will be reviewed by the committee in the order they are received."

The Site Selection Committee will meet regularity in the board room at Grossmont College. Dates of all meetings will be appropriately published. The next meeting of the committee is scheduled for 7 p.m., Wednesday, January 7. Additional information may be obtained by contacting Dale Randles Sr., chairman, Site Selection Committee.

BIG MAN — Helix Center Bill Walton demonstrates just how much an agile 6-10 center can mean to a high-school team as he rises above double coverage by El Cajon's Dean Owens (32) and Sean Barrett (42) to put in two points.

Walton Dumps in 31 To Pace Champions

Helix proved themselves as unbeatable as everyone had feared, as they swept through four games with little trouble to annex the 23rd Annual San Diego Kiwanis Basketball Tournament.

The Highlanders were the tourney favorites in the Unlimited Division, but they made it look so easy.

Monday night, in the championship game at San Diego State, they blasted San Diego, 89-45, to take the crown.

After a first period, when the two teams played to a 16-16 standoff, Helix spun off 19 straight points for a commanding lead that later grew into embarrassing proportions.

The big man, of course, was skyscraping center Bill Walton. The 6-10½ senior put in 31 points and cornered 33 rebounds in the game.

Walton, who brought scouts flocking to the title game, scored a total 132 points in the four games of the tourney, besting the existing standard of 120 held by two players. Madison's Dave Smith, however, ran up 149 points in the competition for the new mark.

Guard Mike Dupree, who along with Walton was chosen for the All-Tournament team, provided the outside scoring punch with 25 points.

It was Dupree's sharpshooting, along with reserve Dan Coleman's three long jumpers, that keyed the Highlander spurt in the second quarter. A San Diego zone had bothered the team before, but Helix zeroed in from outside.

Guard Randy Madsen supported Walton and Dupree with 12 points.

The Highlanders never did have much trouble getting to the finals.

They eased through their first game, a 76-43 win over Patrick Henry.

Walton scored 36 in that game, and Dupree added 13. The Highlanders led in that one, 59-26 before the starters were benched.

Helix met a good, hungry El Cajon quintet in the second round, and Walton's 30 points paced them to an 89-56 win.

Ten Scots shared in the scoring as Helix moved ahead, 21-6 at the quarter and 46-25 at the half. Dupree chipped in with 17 points.

The semi-finals matched Helix and a good Madison team, resulting in an 87-65 win for the Highlanders and 35 more points for Walton.

So now there are few worlds left for Helix to conquer.

They've beaten excellent teams such as Lincoln (78-56), Kiwanis Limited champ Castle Park (92-56) and now San Diego.

If anybody gives the Scotties a tussle, it just might be Monte Vista, a team that beat them last year.

The Monarchs, favored to oppose the Scots in the Kiwanis finals (they were second seed) stumbled against San Diego in the semis, 83-75, but blitzed Madison for third place, 75-60.

A balanced line-up, the Monarchs reached the semi-finals with solid, 75-47 and 92-65 wins over Crawford and Grossmont.

Bill Belander led the way in the Crawford game, hitting for 21 points. Jim Bristol added 15 and Bob Papciak hit for 12 in that game.

The Monarchs were really hot against Grossmont, knocking out 87 per cent from the foul line.

Belander and guard Gary Earle shared scorings honors, both notching 24 points, as Belander hit for 10 of 10 from the foul line.

Center Dan Heien backed the pair with 17 points, while Jim Bristol added 13.

In the San Diego loss, Bristol scored a high of 30 points, while Heien added 14, Belander 10, Earle 8 and Papciak 6.

In that game, the Monarchs trailed by one at the half, and by three at three quarters, but couldn't hang on to the Cavers in the finale.

San Diego solved the Monarch zone with accurate shooting, mostly by guard Nate Smith.

Monte Vista's balanced scoring also showed up in the championship contest, with Heien scoring 21, Belander 18, Earle 13 and sophomore Jack Cross 10. Bristol added 8 and Papciak had 5.

The only other area team in the tourney, Mt. Miguel, was eliminated after a pair of losses.

The Matadors, winless on the season, were decisioned by Madison, 97-43 in the first round and went into consolation play.

Hoover eliminated them from further competition, 90-43, the next night.

Sophomore Mike Bruner provided what little scoring punch they did have in the first game, with 12 points.

Junior John Slater had 12 in the Hoover tilt, while junior Tom Young added 10.

Spring Valley Man Killed in Air Crash

A plane crash Dec. 15 killed a Spring Valley man, the Air Force said.

He enlisted in the Air Force in September of that year and two years later was assigned to Taiwan.

The family is active in the Blossom Lane Mormon Church.

Burial, with full military honors, followed in Ft. Rosecrans National Cemetery. Merkley-Mitchell Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

Arrest Nets Area Man

A Lemon Grove man Friday was formally charged with robbing a College Grove bank of $624.

The defendant, Richard Eldon Kell, 32, of 1507½ Arthur Neal ct., was charged and held in lieu of $15,000 bail pending further proceedings.

Kell was arrested Thursday afternoon, within hours of the robbery at the Security Pacific National Bank branch.

He was apprehended in the Coral Inn, 7346 Broadway in Lemon Grove, after a witness took down the bandits license number outside the bank.

Last year at the same time the total was 1.51 inches.

LG Fire Report

The Lemon Grove Fire Department answered three fire calls for the week of Dec. 15-22, the amount of damage on the "big" fire still being under investigation. Passing motorists were responsible for warning occupants in two cases to "get out." Following is the week's report.

Dec. 16. A short in a television at Monte Vista Lodge on Massachusetts ave., was responsible for about $600 loss to the T.V. set and a room of the Lodge.

Dec. 18. Fire in the garage of an apartment house at 7155 London ln., spread to the apartments. There were three cars in the garage at the time of the fire. A passing motorist, Bob Murray of San Diego, saw the fire and warned occupants (at about 2 a.m.) of the fire, so they could escape unharmed. The building belongs to Harsh Investment Co. of Portland, Ore.

Also on Dec. 18 at 10:39 p.m. firemen were called to the Bowlero Bowling Alley on Broadway. A passing motorist had observed smoke emitting from the back seat of a parked car. Investigating, the motorist pulled out a blanket from the seat and found a man sleeping beneath the blanket. There was no damage, the blaze possibly started by a cigarette, the Fire Department report stated.

Rose Parade Tickets Now

Tickets for the Tournament of Roses Parade are on sale for $9 each, and may be obtained by contacting the San Diego Junior Chamber of Commerce office at 234-4197. All available seats are located at an excellent vantage point for viewing the parade.

Besides appearing in the Rose Parade, the Monarch band is one of the few bands to be selected for a special, pre-taped television appearance.

The band will also perform at Disneyland after the parade.

Seeing San Diego City and County's entry, 'San Diego Fiesta", first hand will delight those who are lucky enough to obtain a parade ticket from the limited amount available.

Taj Mahal, a newly-emerging super star, and the Chambers Brothers, old favorites, will return to San Diego for a January 2 appearance at the San Diego Sports Arena.

Taj, one of the only young blues artists around today, is riding the crest of rising popularity. His latest double-album, "Giant Step," has helped his rise from near-obscurity to the point where he headlines a show at the Fillmore West.

A harp player, he's backed by a band that includes an excellent blues guitarist, Jesse Edwin Davis, an Indian.

The Chambers Brothers, an old folkie four back in the Peter-Paul-Mary days, added a young drummer and amplifiers and achieved a new sound.

They exploded on San Diego and everywhere else when their record "Time Has Come Today" grew from word-of-mouth popularity to overwhelming acceptance.

Sweet Holiday Given by Helix

A very sweet Christmas was given to two elementary schools in the Southeast San Diego area by the Helix High School language students this year.

In a competitive drive lasting only two weeks, the four langauge classes collected over 100,000 pieces of candy and 1,500 gifts for the children of the Washington and Freemont schools.

These students made it possible that over 600 children would receive 2 or 3 gifts, and a tremendous bag of candy each.

Winners of the competition were Mrs. Yolanda Ornelas' Spanish classes, who brought in over 20,000 pieces of candy in total amount, and Philip Knott's German classes who won on an individual basis with every student bringing in 250 pieces of candy in every class.

MV's New Drama Teacher is Actor

A former television actor and dramatic director, Ron Ray arrived from Australia recently to take over as head of Monte Vista High School's Drama Department.

After three years in Australia, Ray compared his students to those at the Monarchy. "The Australian kids are more regimented while the kids here are more interesting. The Australian kids are too talkative."

Ray's acting career began at the tender age of five. "I was five years old when I played the front end of an elephant. In kindergarten, I auditioned as a replacement for a part in 'Life With Father'. I got the part and it's stuck with me."

A frequent performer at the local Old Globe Theatre, Ray has always specialized in teaching acting and directing.

"In Australia, I was in the television serial 'Rip Tide' with Troy Donahue. I was also on 'Homicide', another serial, and appeared on 'Divorce Court' and 'Death Valley Days'."

While in Australia, he taught at the University of Queensland. "In the United States, I taught at the Hollywood School of Drama, Cal Western, Twelfth Night Theatre, and La Biote Theatre at Adult Education Center in San Diego," he said.

Ray's arrival at the Monarchy was a little belated. "At the time I was supposed to come to Monte Vista, I was producing for the Australian Broadcasting Company, and I couldn't leave until my replacement came. When he came, and saw the job, he wouldn't take it so it was a little complicated until the second man came."

The new department head also has plans for a drama club while he hopes that "Monte Vista's drama department will join the ranks of the band, sports and newspaper as being the best in the county."

MALT FROM BARLEY

Barley, specially treated to become malt, is the brewing industry's major raw material. In a typical year, the U. S. brewing industry pays about $115,000,000 for vast supplies of malt — some 2,900,000,000 pounds — to be used in making beer.

Do Tourists Bring Cash?

Ever wonder if tourism really brings in the money?

There's a simple test to find where your dollars come from. Check the letter on your bills — if it's anything other than "L" the bill was minted elsewhere than the West Coast.

Which means that tourists have hand-carried the bills here — as banks don't send the coded currency back and forth.

Here's a key to the printing of currency in the United States:

A — Boston, B — New York, C — Philadelphia, D — Cleveland, E — Richmond, F — Atlanta, G — Chicago, H — St. Louis, I — Minneapolis, J — Kansas City, K — Dallas, L — San Francisco.

Helix Math Class Turns On Students

Math may not turn on most people but for Tom Heyer's Math IIA classes at Helix High School, math is exciting.

Math IIA students surveyed the opinions of Helix students on current issues as a special math problem.

"The survey provides an interesting and practical method of teaching math," Heyer said. "The students could readily see the practical value of the skills emphasized in class," he said.

A sampling of the results are as follows:

U. S. involvement in Viet Nam:

31.6% is important to us as a free nation and we should do everything possible to win the war.

30.0% is a nice gesture to the Vietnamese but it isn't really our fight and we should begin to pull out slowly.

22.5% is wrong and we should completely move out immediately.

10.9% undecided

5.1% no opinion.

I feel the district penalty involved with the use of dangerous drugs:

43.2% is too harsh

14.7% is too lenient

25.9% is fine the way it is

10.0% undecided

6.2% no opinion

Compulsory Education: (the requirement that each student receive twelve years of formal eduction)

50.7% is fine the way it is

9.29% should be compulsory only through the second year of high school.

29.5% should be left up to the discretion of the student and parent upon entering high school

5.5% undecided

5.27% no opinion

Driving Danger Highest On Christmas Eve

"We don't want to get involved in your Christmas festivities," Captain V. J. Herz of the California Highway Patrol said in a holiday greeting.

"Christmas is a time of joy and brotherhood, and if we become a part of your celebration it will protably mean you have had an accident or were arrested for drunk driving. We want neither to happen."

Captain Herz offered several suggestions for assuring a safe Christmas season:

1. Be generous on the highway. Don't try to crowd out a driver who wants to move into your lane. Don't "push" slower drivers by following too close, and don't be "Scroogish" by driving too slow for prevailing traffic.

2. Keep a clear head so you'll be ready for emergencies. Don't drive if drink has left you too happy to believe that you have to drive carefully.

3. The driver's seat is no place for a sleepy head. Don't drive if you're over-tired.

4. Allow enough time to get where you're going safely, or you may not get there at all.

"Christmas Eve was the most dangerous day in December last year and the hours between the time people left work and the dinner hour were the most dangerous hours," Captain Herz continued. "Be especially careful when you start home on Christmas Eve. Remember that there are many excited and carefree people on the road. Be extra careful, for their sake as well as your own."

Van Says Cork Pulled On Border Traffic Tieup

WASHINGTON — A House-approved appropriation bill will enable the Customs Bureau to nearly double the number of its inspectors at San Ysidro, Rep. Lionel Van Deerlin, D.San Diego, said.

"The bureau assures me this increase will be enough to keep all 16 border gates open at peak traffic periods," he added.

The supplemental appropriation bill, which cleared the House last week, earmarks $8,750,000 for the Customs Bureau to hire additional personnel and buy new equipment for San Ysidro and other major ports of entry along the Mexican and Canadian borders.

San Ysidro will be allocated 42 additional inspectors, 20 more agents, two pilots, a dog handler and six clerical workers, Van Deerlin said.

"At present San Ysidro has about 50 fulltime inspectors and a manpower shortage which has kept some gates closed and contributed to whopping auto traffic tie-ups," the San Diego Congressman continued.

He hailed the congressional action to bolster the bureau's strength, saying it will facilitate a long-range attack on narcotics smuggling that can be exceuted without additional inconvenience to law-abiding citizens.

The money for the extra personnel was sought by the Customs Bureau in the wake of the Operation Intercept crackdown on marijuana smuggling at San Ysidro and other border areas.

For that effort, the Government beefed up the San Ysidro staff by 60 percent, adding a total of 83 men to the 139 already assigned there from the Customs, Immigration and Public Health services. But the additional personnel were withdrawn when the controversial Operation Intercept was terminated in October.

The border gates are manned by inspectors while agents perform investigative work.

CHUCKIN' SPORTS

All-Star, joy for few, heartbreak for many

By Chuck Curtis

When the Breitbard Foundation sent us our copy of the All-Star football selections we looked it over with mixed emotions.

First we missed several names that have been by-words since this editor arrived in the area last year and second it distressed us to see a few schools dominate the selections.

Among those who had expected to see somewhere on the list were Kyle Hypes and Billy Joe Winchester. We were also shocked to find that there was not one player representing Patrick Henry High in spite of the fact they ended the season as league co-champions.

Naturally our major interest is in the teams from the Grossmont League and we were mildly shocked to see that only Bill Fudge of El Capitan High School was the only Grossmonth League player to make the first team.

Frank Proctor of Grossmont High, Don Jackson of Mt. Miguel and Tim Doerr of Granite Hills were named on the second team and no one on the third team.

Our hackles rose and we grabbed the phone to find out who had named the All-Stars.

To our complete surprise we found it was a very complex and, as far as is possible, fair system.

Members of the Breitbard Foundation informed us that there was a panel of coaches, a representative of the California Interscholastic Federation District Office and a representative of the Breitbard Foundation. These men have the final choice, but there is more to it than that.

We asked specifically about the Grossmont League and were advised that the Grossmont League coaches voted on the names of the league players to be recommended to the group. Two representatives presented the list and then the committee voted on it.

The sad part is the fact an all-star team is not really the choice of X-number of the best players in the area. It is based on positions with just three men picked in each position. In one year it is conceivable that the top dozen players might all play in the same position, perhaps guard, but still only three of them could be named.

Frankly I have been trying to decide on the most fair and equitable method of selecting an all-star team.

Perhaps the same voting system should not name a "team," but should pick the top 36 or 50 football players, completely disregarding the positions played.

If "team" is all important than why not two all-star teams. The first to be selected from the three top teams in each league and the other from the remaining teams.

These two teams could then be matched in the High School All-Star Bowl Game to be played for some selected charity.

I am aware there is no provision for post-season games at this time but rules are flexible. I do not mean they are made to be broken, but there are provisions for legally changing rules.

One thing is certain, with the present system, no matter how hard the committee may try, some very deserving young high school athletes are left out each year.

Still, after all is considered, we certainly do not want to see the selection of All-Stars discontinued. Just made more fair.

This column is coming out Christmas Eve and your editor would like to use some of the space to send Christmas wishes.

First to the coaches, Charley Waller of the Chargers, Preston Gomez of the Padres, Alex Hannum of the Rockets, Max McNab of the Gulls and all the high school, college and university coaches, we wish them winning teams, fine gentlemanly athletes and long contracts.

To those fine people in press relations, Bob King of the Rockets, Reed Nessle of the Gulls, Jerry Wynn of the Chargers and who ever replaces Bud Tucker with the Padres, heartfelt thanks for the many courtesies extended during the past year and sincere best wishes for the very best in years to come.

This wish is also to include the fine staff members in each office. It is also extended to the fine PR people at Grossmont College, San Diego State, USIU and the high schools in the Grossmont League.

Sincere holiday wishes to Bob Breitbard and his fine staff.

Our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many fine young athletes who made our work such a joy.

Finally sincere wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all of you readers who have the patience and courage to read these columns. Without whom we would certainly have neither a Merry Christmas nor a Happy New Year.

If you, like this editor, are a Rocket fan (and I certainly hope you all are) you must have become aware of a new excitement in the arena. When the Rockets take the court and begin running, they are really something to watch.

Plagued by injuries to three or four key players, the Rockets have still managed to become truly thrilling to watch since Alex Hannum took the reins.

With the Rockets in their new running game, the scoring burden is balanced. Every player gets his chance to run, to pass, to shoot and to play defense.

The result is exciting basketball, well worth going to see.

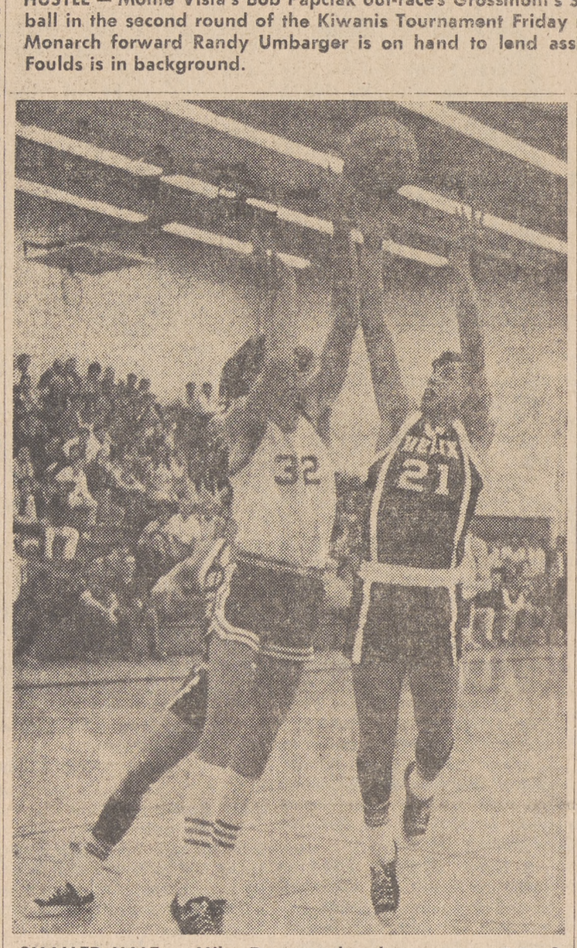
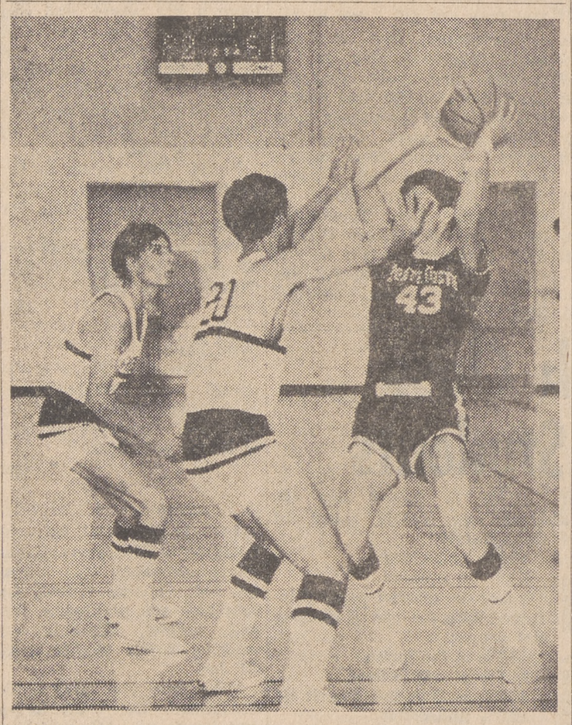
HUSTLE — Monte Vista's Bob Papciak out-races Grossmont's Steve Staats (diving) to a loose ball in the second round of the Kiwanis Tournament Friday night. Monarch forward Randy Umbarger is on hand to lend assistance, while Foothiller Tom Foulds is in background. (Photo by Marc Lieberman)



SMALLER HALF — Mike Dupree, the short man at 5-9 of the long-tall Helix scoring punch, can do almost anything on the court, it seems. Here, Dupree over-reaches El Cajon's 6-4 Dean Owens to get away a shot in the Highlander's win in Kiwanis Tourney. (Photo by Marc Lieberman)



PEEK-A-BOO — Monte Vista's Bill Belander got this pass away despite having to sight through Grossmont defender Steve Hersom's fingers Friday night. Guard Scott Smith makes sure that Belander has no room to move. The scoreboard in the background tells the story as the Monarchs outclassed the 'Hillers in the tourney. (Photo by Marc Lieberman)

Matador Wrestlers Top Foes

Mount Miguel Wrestlers took their second pre-season match December 16, when they topped University, 32-16.

The Matmen totaled three pins, all in the second period, by Mick Allenson, at 95, Kevin Pullan at 145, and Rick Harden at 154; Allenson's was the fastest in 2:19.

Decision matches were awarded to Dale Siscon, Fred Taylor, Geno Cesena, Chris Wilhite, and Bill Winchester, with Mark Schuff tying his match 4-4. The Dons won four matches, one by a pin.

Jayvee wrestlers captured their match as they swept University in a 47-8 dual.

Mighty Mite, Dale Siscon, with three consecutive pins, leads the Matador team in a 139-point lead at the Mount Miguel Invitational Tournament, recently.

Firsts taken by Matadors were by Siscon at 95, Chris Wilhite at 175, Don Jackson at 191, and Bill Winchester at heavyweight. Three seconds were taken: Fred Taylor at 112, Mark Schuff at 138, and Rock Harden at 154. Geno Cesena, Juan Villareal, Cooley, and Greg Robinson placed third in the tourney. Kevin Pullan was the only Matador to take a fourth.

El Cajon captured second in the tourney with 109 points. The Braves compiled four firsts taken by Wood, Moody, Campbell, and Nichols. Marsh, Bowser, and Nicolet placed second for the Braves.

University placed third overall with 91 total points; Morris was fourth with 82 as a team score.

Aztec Runners Dominate Stars

San Diego State runners completely dominated the All-San Diego County Cross Country team selected by the San Diego Track and Field Association.

In all, five of the 10 team members were on this season's Aztec squad. Heading the list are seniors Charlie Winsor, Dennis Smith and Bob Messina. Winsor was a second place finisher in the Pacific Coast Athletic Association championships and represented the San Diego Track Club in the national AAU meet in Detroit. Messina was State's team captain.

The other two Aztecs selected were Tom Davidson, winner of the Jessop Trophy as State's most outstanding runner, and Dave Matheny, winner of the annual Balboa 8-mile Run.

Despite the fact three of the Aztecs chosen for the elite team are graduating in June, the future of the Aztecs is far from dismal as three of the other five runners chosen will be running for SDS next season.

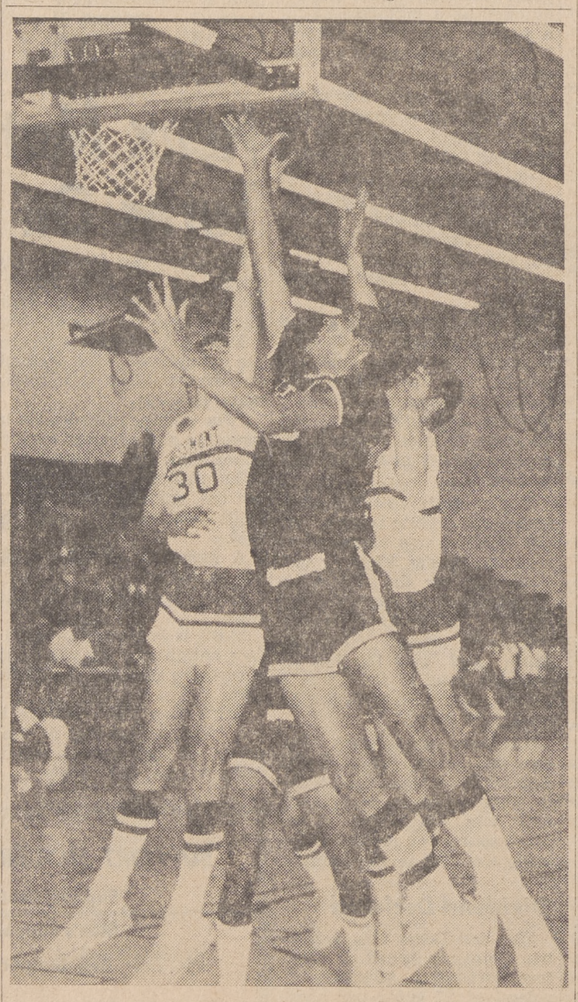
The three, all red-shirting this year, are Otis Martin, Steve Whittle and Bill Inglehart all of whom competed in the national AAU championships along with Winsor.

Actress To Reign at Open

SAN DIEGO — Barbara Anderson, co-star of the dramatic television series "Ironside", will reign over the 3rd annual Andy Williams San Diego Open, January 27-February 1, at Torrey Pines Golf Course.

Winner of an Emmy award for "Most Outstanding Performance by an Actress in a Supporting Role", Barbara, a basic newcomer to television is a blond beauty with an enviable list of credits on the legitimate stage as well as television.

The new queen hails from Brooklyn, New York — started her show business career at an early age in minstrel shows, was active on the stage in high school in Tennessee, taking drama, and was "hooked", she says, when she heard the laughter of the audience.



BIG EFFORT — Monte Vista showed surprising board strength in its win over Grossmont. Here, center Dan Heien, 6-2, battles Grossmont's 6-5 center Kevin Enright on even terms in a battle under the boards. Also in the fight is Foothiller forward Tom Foulds, 6-4. (Photo by Marc Lieberman)

Give Park For Present

SACRAMENTO — Christmas shoppers looking for last-minute gift ideas were given a novel suggestion by William Penn Mott Jr., Director of the California Department of Parks and Recreation.

"How about giving a State Park for Christmas," Mott asked. "Or better yet, how about giving some family a hundred parks?"

Mott explained he was talking about the annual day use permits which are now on sale. "For $10 you can give a whole family the use of picnicking, parking, and other day use facilities in nearly 100 State Parks for a whole year."

Without the permit, these units collected a day use fee of 75 cents per vehicle each time you use the park. With the permit, you can enter and use the parks as many times as you wish, beginning now and extending through December 31, 1970.

These parks are located throughout the state and include beaches, redwood parks, recreation areas, and desert and Sierra parks. The permit cannot be used for camping or at state historic units and museums where an entrance or guided tour fee is charged.

Another Christmas gift proposed by Mott is the annual boat launching permit which also sells for $10. This entitles the boater to use boat launching facilities at 12 park units for the balance of this year and all of 1970. The normal fee is $1 each time a boat is launched.

Director Mott suggested that either permit would make an excellent gift and explained they may be obtained only at park units, by mail or in person.

The Gulls and Sports Arena will again host a Skating Party after Sunday night's game. All fans are invited to bring their skates and skate on the Sports Arena ice for an hour after the game.

Following Friday's game, the Gulls will not go on the road again for three weeks.

'Too Much Holiday' or Serious Symptom?

The term "indigestion" is a catch-all phrase which covers a number of symptoms, all related to discomfort or distress in the digestive system. It could mean heartburn, gas, nausea, loss of appetite, cramps, constipation, diarrhea, or a combination of these symptoms.

Symptoms of indigestion might result from a relatively minor episode, caused sometimes by being indiscreet about what you eat or drink—and in what amounts — and sometimes by emotional stress.

For example, the burning sensation under the breastbone (which is commonly called heartburn, although it has nothing to do with the heart) is often caused by drinking, eating, or smoking too much.

The feeling of being bloated or gaseous is often caused by swallowing air along with your food; sometimes it can be traced to an overabundance of rich foods in your diet.

Diarrhea and constipation, lack of appetite, and vomiting are all common responses of the digestive tract to worry, fear, depression, or other emotional tensions.

On the other hand, any one of these digestive symptoms might be the warning signs of more serious health problems. It is difficult to tell which ones to dismiss as minor discomforts and which ones should be reported to your doctor.

A symptom of digestive distress which shows up in an older person who has always had a sturdy stomach is especially significant and should be investigated.

A gnawing pain in the upper abdomen an hour or two after a meal ought to be reported to your doctor, as should stomach pain, diarrhea or other symptoms which awaken you during the night.

When your symptoms of indigestion occur along with other symptoms, such as darkened stools or urine, excessive weakness, or yellowish discoloration of the skin and eyeballs, you should without question consult your doctor, because in those circumstances your indigestion is part of a deeper health problem which should be treated as promptly as possible.

If you feel that your indigestive should be called to the attention of your doctor, you would do well to keep track of the circumstances under which the symptoms develop;

- Do they appear only when you are under tension
- Do they seem to be related to specific types of foods?
- Do they occur regularly and as specific times of the day?
- Do they occur after physical exertion?

This sort of information will provide your doctor with helpful clues in tracking down the cause of your digestive problems.

For many people, the symptoms may be relieved simply by improving eating habits and reduction of emotional tension.

November Slows Economy Rise

Local economic activity levelled off during November, according to Edward L. Jones, Manager of Security Pacific National Bank's College Grove Branch.

Record department store sales volume was outweighed by declines in bank debits, construction and real estate sales, Jones said.

Security Pacific National Bank's Index of Business Activity for Southern California registers at 206.6 (1957-59 = 100) in measuring partial November data.

With adjustments for seasonal fluctuations, the bank's department store sales index reached 225.00, up from 213.0 last month and up from a previous high of 217.0 in August.

Employment during October, the latest month for which figures are available, rose to another record level.

Seasonally adjusted unemployment in the eight counties fell to 4.1 percent during October from 4.4 percent during both August and September, Jones concluded.

From Southern California, "I know of few places as the Torrey Pines State Reserve where one can feel so strongly th atavistic urge for nature to survive in spite of the obscenities which man has committed in he name of progress. If my small contribution can preserve one little corner of California for the sea life and bird life which abounds in that area, it is well spent."
